“ *Most sincere condolences and deepest sympathies to all the family and friends of the passing of Jim. Sarah, Bill, Orren, and all his siblings Rick, Doreen, and Diane you all will be in our prayers. I met Jim 49 years ago in the Slab Mill at Armed 49 years ago and immediately struck a friendship up with his outgoing and humorous personality. We spent many of weekends together riding bikes, throwing frisbee, listening and playing music, drinking a couple of beers occasionally. Even as the years went by and we saw each other less, when we talked it was like we hadn't missed a beat. Jim was always there for you if needed, loved all his family and certainly talked about his grandchildren often. You will certainly be missed by all who knew you Jim, RIP dear friend.
