“ I loved walking into Hickory Hill CC and walking past the kitchen, seeing Chef Green there preparing the many meals as he always did. He looked like he was really enjoying himself in the kitchen. I to love to cook and I took one of his classes he held and throughly enjoyed every minute of it ! He was just so enthusiastic about teaching and showing us something we didn't know. There was a great thrill in his eyes. I also know that he got really excited to prepare something that was NOT on the menu, and I was excited to eat it. Thank you Bill for the wonderful meals and thank you for putting your heart where my mouth was and for your friendships you made with all of us. You will be thought of and missed on a daily basis.##imported-begin##Brent & Brenda Green##imported-end##

“ I have had the opportunity to work and spend time with "Chef Green" over the past few years with my duties with the Hickory Hills board of directors and Chef was always someone who would always leave you with a smile on your face after talking with him. His outlook on life was one that should be copied by all, as it would make the world a better place to live in. I will miss our get together's but, he is in a better place and his suffering has ended. Speaking for the Board of Directors at Hickory Hills Country Club, Chef Green has left a large void in our family and he will be truly missed. Not only as the master Chef he was but as part of the Hickory family. He will always be remembered and our thoughts and prayers are with you, his immediate family, during this difficult time. We are thankful for the time Chef gave us to be with him during his time on earth.##imported-begin##Lynn Thompson##imported-end##

“ Bill came to Springfield, MO, and Hickory Hills Country Club during my term as Club President. He had an immediate impact on the quality of food and service at the club. In addition, he made friends easily and was an extremely popular member of the staff. On a personal level, he made special efforts on more than one occasion to accomodate Nancy and me. He was a very special friend. We'll miss him very much.##imported-begin##Mike and Nancy White##imported-end##
