“ Bill, you will be missed. God had given you such a free spirit, that nobody could avoid seeing it. The trip to Key West when we sunk the jet skies will always be a memeory. Yes, Bill, I need to now confess to everyone our little secret, It was I who sunk the jet ski. Thanks for not leaving me stranded miles off shore. Thank goodness for the boat and tow rope. Still makes me laugh everytime I think about it. Keep God's parts in order as with all the street paved in Gold, he must have big Peterbilt Trucks.....even if they are street sweepers. See you again some day. Keep an eye on us will ya.

Love ya man.....David###imported-begin###david Buckler###imported-end##

“Ginger and family, please accept my deepest condolences. You are in my family's thoughts and prayers. I am still trying to accept the fact that Potsy is gone. I spoke to him on Friday afternoon and never realized it would be the last time. He was more than a great boss, but also a great friend to so many people. I will never forget everything he taught me and how he would always say, "...never get excited, there's nothing to get excited about..." He was a great guy who was taken from us way too early and will be missed for a long time. May his memory live in your hearts and minds forever. I know he will always be in mine.##imported-begin##Wes Callander##imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Potsy's passing. He always said what he meant and meant what he said whether in our business mode or just hanging out. I consider myself lucky and blessed for having known him. Some of my best memories will be the times I had the opportunity to get 9 in with him before dark at Highlands. We shared some great conversations, some laughs, and a beer or two. He had a "quiet wisdom" about him and I consider it a privilege to have known him. I will miss him. May God grant you peace during this time of sorrow. I will keep the family in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Jim McClure##imported-end##

“ It is with enduring sadness that I recieved the news of Potsy. He was a quality person and one of the really good people I was fortunate to meet in business. Always felt like we shared more than "just business" as Potsy made you feel welcome and generously shared his passion for life, his family news, and his friendship. It was my pleasure to have shared in his "rich life"...he will remain in my thoughts & prayers and I will ask the Lord to look after his most prized treasures...Ginger, Kendra, Wade and Grant...and to share his peace with them in a Mass at my church.##imported-begin##Don Fapore##imported-end##

“ There comes a point in time someone will come into your life. Someone that will leave an everlasting impression on your mind.. That one person to me was Potsy..

Potsy once told me "Roxy you got to live your life to the fullest and not hold back. You never know when it will end." He gave me the strength to do that and I am so glad he told me this, he made me open my eyes to life..He was a great husband, father, a new grandfather and a great co-worker. I will miss him. Let us not mourn his death but celebrate his life.. The life of a good man..My thoughts and prayers are with his family in this time. Again let us all celebrate his life...##imported-begin##Roxann (Rox) Alicea -- Hunter Jersey Peterbilt##imported-end##
